Hudson Cook, LLP Adds Three Attorneys and Opens New England Offices
-New England top financial services group joins industry leading compliance law firm-

Hanover, MD – December 7, 2011

Hanover Maryland. -- Hudson Cook LLP, a nationwide provider of legal compliance services for the financial services industry, recently announced the addition of three attorneys and the establishment of the firm's New England offices. Lori A. Desjardins, Thomas P. Quinn, Jr. and Ryan S. Stinneford, all formerly with Pierce Atwood LLP, joined their banking and compliance practice with the Firm's.

Lori Desjardins brings extensive experience in bank regulatory compliance involving deposit, credit, non-deposit investment products, cash management products and service agreements.

Tom Quinn is experienced with banks and non-depository financial service companies and their compliance with state and federal regulations affecting consumer lending, deposit products and privacy matters.

Ryan Stinneford's practice includes state and federal regulatory compliance and bank regulatory matters. His experience also includes advising clients in all industries on marketing, advertising, privacy and data security issues.

We are really pleased to have these able and experienced lawyers join our practice. They provide us with additional geographical reach, add valuable depth to our core practices and bring additional breadth with practice areas that complement ours, said Tom Hudson, Chairman of Hudson Cook.
